

Costuming and Scenery Lend Play Atmosphere

"The Teahouse of the August Moon," directed by Dr. Ralph E. Fulsom, will be presented by the Speech Department in the auditorium of the Administration building Thursday, November 20, and Friday, November 21.

Thursday, November 20, the play will be presented for the student body at two o'clock. The public performance will begin at eight o'clock in the evening, Friday, November 21.

Winner of the Critics Circle and Pulitzer awards, the comedy takes place in Okinawa. In teaching democracy to the Okinawans, an Army officer shows the superiority of the human heart over the military mind.

Members of the stagecraft class who are in charge of constructing the scenery are Ruth Curfman, Del Smith, Pat Murphy, Dan DeMott, Carl Redmon, and Bill Price. Others helping with the scenery are John Bush, Fred Reeves, Dan Neville, Clyde Weeks, Gary Johnson, Maudie Chivington, Judy Frese, and Ralph Messerli.

Mrs. Theodore Palmer is making the costumes which were designed by Dr. Fulsom and Mr. L. G. Bladt.

Dan DeMott, Del Smith, and John Quastler presented a short preview of the "Teahouse" for those who attended the Homecoming Variety Show.

Machinery Levels Ground by Quads For Construction

Earth moving machinery is leveling ground preparatory to the construction of an asphalt parking lot and drive in front of the main entrance to the New Quad.

According to Mr. Lon Wilson, Dean of Men, the new parking area in front of the New Quad will accommodate approximately 80 cars. In addition to this, the parking area west of the Quadrangle will be extended further south.

Plans Include Service Drive

Plans also call for a service drive to extend through the parking area in front of the New Quad and around to the west side of the building. In the rear of the building there will be a switch-back where vehicles may turn around.

Water drainage problems, caused by the small ditch running parallel to the west side of the Quadrangle, will be solved by the use of large metal tubing. The tubing will be extended on past the drive. The water will then be allowed to empty into a ditch.

Sidewalks Are in Order

Concrete sidewalks are in process of being poured. One section is being constructed from the north entrance of Quad 6. The walk will then extend on to the main drive west of Horace Mann.

Area in front of the New Quad not being made into a parking lot will be permanently landscaped.

Paratrooper

Freshman Halfback Wants Club to Train New Jumpers

In the "maybe" stage is a new organization trying to find its place on campus.

Al Kyle, freshman football player from Weston, is intensely interested in parachute jumping as a result of having spent three years as a paratrooper with the Eleventh Airborne Division. He was discharged from the service in December, 1957, after having spent two years in Germany.

Two Jump at Airport

Kyle, who with Richard Stoops, Maryville city policeman, has made a few jumps at the Maryville Municipal Airport recently, says that several men have expressed an interest in learning parachute jumping. Kyle and Stoops would like to form a club and train students and compete with other similar organizations, if enough are interested.

In their jumps, the latest of which was Sunday, October 26, Kyle and Stoops use the "freefall" method, in which the parachutist opens the chute himself by means of a "rip-cord." This is the type of jumping which would be taught club members.

Service Uses Static Line

Free-fall jumping may be contrasted with "static-line" jumping, the method used in the service. The static line is a device inside the airplane which opens the parachute automatically as the jumper leaves the plane.

For training students for free-fall jumping Kyle says that a static line device for simulated free-fall would be needed. In this way, if the parachutist failed to open the chute himself, the device in the plane would open it automatically.

Equipment Is Available

Planes for jumping are furnished by the Maryville airport. Kyle has a parachute which could be used in teaching trainees, as does (Continued on Page Two)

Far-Away Alumni Return for Events

Many alumni of the College traveled long distances to attend the 1958 Homecoming events. Alumni from Iowa, Missouri, Colorado, Nebraska, Kansas, South Dakota, Arizona, and California were among those who registered.

Those attending from Colorado included Miss Jo Ellen Wilson, Boulder; Keith Richards, Loveland; Maryon Buhler, Denver; Marvin Carmichael, Denver; and Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Rowley, Denver.

Alumni from California attending were Paul C. Robey, Watsonville; Barbara Taylor Brandon, Oxnard; and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Snapp, Wilmington.

Other alumni who came from long distances for Homecoming were Gene Johnson, Aurora, Illinois; James Roll, Vermillion, South Dakota; and Henry Southard, Tucson, Arizona.

Five Are Delegates To Regional Meet Of Newman Clubs

Five delegates from the Newman Club recently attended the twenty-ninth regional convention of the central midwest region of Newman Clubs. This congress was held on the campus of Mount Saint Scholastica College, Atchison, Kansas.

Highlighting the first session was the keynote address, "Higher Education and the Apostolate," given by Mr. Robert Christin, professor of English at Notre Dame University.

"Is the atmosphere on your college campus intellectual?" he asked. He said that when one can cope with the worst opposition and "still love the opposer" he has "begun to go toward a mature apostolate."

Attending the congress were Miss Ann Gorsuch, faculty adviser, and Alice Koppold, Beverly Elliott, Patty Berg, and Rose Mary Meyer.

Students Overflow Chemistry Classes

Record numbers of students in chemistry classes this year have brought increasing problems to the College administration. There are approximately one hundred and fifty students in freshman chemistry, divided into three sections.

Because of this lack of room and lack of teachers, most new agriculture and engineering students were unable to take their required chemistry course this semester.

Dr. J. Gordon Strong, head of the chemistry department, stated that he hoped these students will be able to get the courses next semester. Even then their sequence of courses may be seriously damaged. If they can't at this time, they will be unable to complete their requirements until next year.

No new rooms will be used by the chemistry department in the new classroom building, but the department hopes to have more space in the Administration building.

Warner to Release 'Home Before Dark'

HOME BEFORE DARK, a novel written by Eileen Bassing, will soon be released as a movie by Warner Brothers.

Jean Simmons will star in the movie as a young woman returning to her home and attempting to renew her normal life after spending two distasteful years in a mental institution.

Through her husband's actions, and the shame and pity of old friends, she discovers the cause of her breakdown.

Miss Bassing's realistic novel examines the background and effects of psychoneurosis. The novel may be purchased at most book stands for 50 cents.

Ag Club Gives Square Dance In Farm Shop

It was "do-si-do and away we go" Friday, October 31, when the Ag Club held its annual Barnwarmin' festivities in the agriculture department's farm shop.

Taking part in square dancing were agriculture students and their dates. Refreshments were provided by the Ag Club.

Barnwarmin', named after an old prairie settler's custom of dedicating newly built barns with dancing and merriment, was preceded by a unique method of delivering party invitations. Ag Club members, accompanied by a frisky billy-goat, called on their respective dates late Wednesday evening. In accepting an invitation to the Barnwarmin', each girl had the choice of kissing her suitor or kissing the bearded—and odoriferous—goat.

"It may interest you to know," reports Charles Knorr, Ag Club president, "that we've got the most-kissed billy-goat in the Middlewest!"

New Quad Council Elects Officers At Recent Meeting

Two officers were elected to the Quad Council which was formed at the first meeting of the representatives from all the quads. They are Sam Porter, president; and Larry Gardner, secretary.

Advisers to the Council are Mr. Lon Wilson, dean of men; Mr. Harry Bowes, assistant dean of men; and Mr. Ted Baldwin, householder of Quad 2.

Council to Promote Understanding
It is believed that such an organization will better unite the men of the quads in order to promote better fellowship and understanding.

Business discussed at the first meeting included the need for a constitution and the time and place of meetings. The meetings will be held on the second and fourth Thursday of each month at 6:00 in the north dining room of the Student Union.

Council Appoints Committee
At the second meeting of the Quad Council on Thursday, October 23, the Council discussed the possibility of naming the new quad rather than calling it just "new quad." A committee was appointed to look into the matter.

Thursday, November 13, is the date of the next meeting of the Quad Council.

Den Movie to Be Warner Product

The Den Movie to be presented Friday, November 7, at 7:15 will be "The Searchers." The movie stars John Wayne, Jeffrey Hunter and Ward Bond. "The Searchers" is a Warner Brothers presentation that lasts an hour and fifty-nine minutes.

This is one of the greatest of the great pictures of the American West. Set in the Monument Valley country of Utah and Arizona, it deals with the search for two girls abducted by Comanches. One of the searchers wishes to return them to civilization; the other, to kill them.

Phi Sigma Epsilon To Go to Conclave

Thirty members of Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity will attend the annual regional conclave at Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, November 14 and 15.

Housing, finance, pledging, and administration will be among the matters discussed at the conclave.

Hayden Receives $120 for 12 Lines

Robert L. Hayden, president of the Writers Club, has received $120 for the publication of his twelve-line poem "To the Lover," in the November, 1958, issue of the LADIES HOME JOURNAL.

Mr. Hayden's poem is written in blank verse. Under the direction of Miss Mattie Dykes, sponsor of the Writers Club, he was able to have his poem accepted.

Although this is Mr. Hayden's first poem to be published, it is not the first of his writings to be published. Earlier he had an anecdote published in "Life in These United States," in the READER'S DIGEST.

Mr. Hayden, a senior English and social science major, is married and has two children.

Looking Forward . .

Nov. 5—Charles A. Kuhn piano recital, 8:00 p.m., Horace Mann auditorium.

Dance Club Plans Program in Spring

Dance Club activities this year center around planning for an assembly to be presented in the spring. The assembly will feature costumes and lighting.

Miss Sara Beth Kurtz and Mrs. Raymond Walker, sponsors of the club, teach many types of dancing during the sessions beginning at six o'clock on Wednesday evenings. Under their leadership, the club is taking an active part in campus entertainment. Their first contribution was the tap dance number at the Homecoming Variety Show.

Officers of the Dance Club are Karen Kinnick, president, and Mary Prichard, secretary-treasurer.

Anita McIntyre is A. W. S. representative, and Sara Beth Kurtz and Mary Prichard are Religious Emphasis Week chairmen.

New members and visitors are welcome regardless of experience.

Delta Zeta Pledges Are Halloween Party Guests

Active members of the Delta Zeta sorority held a surprise Halloween party for their pledges in their chapter room. Entertainment was provided by Janice Olenius, Marilyn Leighty and Dolores Behrends. Refreshments of apple cider and doughnuts were served.

Stoops. Kyle's equipment was obtained from Air Force surplus at a cost of $175, as contrasted with the regular price of a parachute with full equipment, which is around 300 or 400 dollars, according to Kyle. He thought that anyone wanting to purchase a parachute could get one from Air Force surplus.

Before accepting anyone for training, Kyle and Stoops insist that a prospective trainee have a physical examination by a physician. This is a precautionary measure for the protection both of the trainee and of the teachers.

Transcripts Are Revealing . . .

College students graduated after the 1958 spring session were faced with an unusual circumstance that has been virtually unknown for more than a decade. Business and school representatives who came to campus to interview prospective employees were not begging. A diploma did not mean automatic acceptance by firms or school districts in search of bright, responsible men and women.

Keenly awakened by the ominous clouds of the recession, organizations large and small are now searching for more than a name and a diploma when they consider job requirements. College transcripts, listing a graduating senior's credit hours and grades, are being more carefully screened. Below-standard grades breed elements of doubt as to an individual's abilities and ambitions.

The transcript casts reflections; it will pay each college student to consider the story it tells.

'Cats Fight 'Dogs in Final Home Game

Bulldogs Growl, Cats Scratch In Fight For "Hickory Stick"

Kirkville's Bulldogs will invade Memorial Stadium Saturday, November 8, at 2:00 p.m., to clash with the Bearcats in the traditional game for the possession of the "Hickory Stick." The Bulldogs now hold it as a result of their win over Maryville in last year's game 32-7.

In the series of games between these two, dating back to 1908, Kirkville has won 23 and Maryville has won 11 with 3 ending as ties. The last win for the Bearcats was back in 1955 by a 6-2 score.

Kirkville Has Eleven Titles

The Bulldogs, coached by Maurice "Red" Wade, who is in his eighth year as head football coach, have won the conference title eleven times and shared the top spot three times since the conference started in 1924. The Bearcats, in the same period, have taken four championships and tied for it twice. The last one for the Bearcats was shared with Kirkville in 1952.

Kirkville players now have a record of 4 wins and 3 losses after the upset handed to them by the Rolla Miners October 25. They have wins over Washburn 26-13, Grace-land 27-7, Springfield 39-7, and Warrensburg 32-13, while losing to Pittsburg 21-12, St. Ambrose 31-25, and Rolla 27-20. Their wins have been by good margins and no doubt as to the winner, while all their losses have been close, all by a one-touchdown difference.

Kirkville Has Dangerous Players

They have a dangerous runner in Dale Mills who leads the nation in rushing and scoring among small colleges. He also ranks fourth in total offense. Other backs who figure in Kirkville's offense are Rhodes, their quarterback, and Davis—both capable of moving the ball.

Intramural Teams Complete Tourney

The Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity members were leading at the completion of the first round of touch football games with 155 points. They compiled a total record of 24 wins and 10 losses, while Phi Sigma Epsilon trailed with 15 wins and 19 losses for a total of 128 points.

Tau Kappa Epsilon was a distant third with 41 points. Two teams went undefeated in winning their league titles. They were Rich Fleming's Phi Sig Blazers and Don Riley's Sig Tau V team.

The touch football playoffs are a round robin tournament of the leading two teams from each league. Four Sig Tau teams and two Phi Sig teams qualified for the finals.

As of last Wednesday night, October 28, Sam Porter's Phi Sig Falcons were still undefeated in final round play, to remain in first place. The Phi Sigs had a composite record of 5 wins, 1 loss, as compared with the Sig Taus 4-8, on that date. Final games were played Monday night.

Thirteen Seniors To Play Last Game

When the final gun goes off to end the game with Kirkville, November 8, thirteen seniors will have played their last game in Memorial Stadium, probably their last game for life on a gridiron.

These seniors can always look back on their college football days and remember the great competition, companionship, and bruising games that have become a part of them. The shrill sound of the whistle, the long hot summer days of hard work, the roar of the crowds, the happy moments, the unhappy moments will now and then be remembered and cherished.

The final game will be seen by the following men: Jerry Golden, halfback; Al Gaston, halfback; Larry Schweizer, halfback; Don Hughes, end; Charles Booth, tackle; Gene Smith, guard; Dick Powell, quarterback; Clifton Schmitt, end; Elmer Clark, fullback; Harold Wilkinson, end; Paul Krokstrom, center; Jim Clayton, guard; and Ed Kuenzi, guard.

Random Shots . . .

National small college scoring and rushing leader, Dale Mills of Kirkville's Bulldogs, has increased his total rushing yardage to 1099 yards and his total points to 103 according to the latest N.C.A.A. small college statistical release.

Cooper, of the Rolla Miners, is first in the Conference in pass receiving with 22 catches for 338 yards. Al Kyle of the Bearcats is 10th with 7 catches and 106 yards.

Leading punter in the conference is Thrower of Cape Girardeau with 39 punts for an average of 33.77 yards per kick. Dick Powell of Maryville is 4th with an average of 32.65 yards per kick.

Next opponents for the Bearcats, the Kirkville Bulldogs, have the number one passer in the Conference in Rhodes who has completed 35 out of 65 attempts for a completion average of 53.85 per cent. Dick Powell, Bearcat quarterback, has completed 24 out of 69 for a 34.79 per cent average.

Bearcat Gridders Fall to Rolla 20-7 On Road Saturday

Maryville Bearcats lost to Rolla Miners 20-7 in Saturday's football game at Rolla. The loss permitted Rolla to take a No. 2 position in the MIAA conference.

The Bearcats pushed across their only score in the last seconds of the game on a one-yard plunge by Al Kyle.

Fullback Ray Parker was the Miners' leading scorer. He was on the receiving end of one of Bill Wheeler's passes and bulled over from the four for another score.

The Miners, led by Tom Cooper who rushed for 127 yards in 18 carries, made 330 yards on the ground.
